

English is what you want to learn.
New York is where you want to be.

Institute of American Language and Culture

SPRING 2017
JANUARY 17 – MAY 5

www.fordham.edu/esl

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

THE JESUIT UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

You think big.

You work hard. You've dreamed of coming to New York and are ready to reach your potential. Improving your English is the next step, but you don't want to stop there. You are looking for more. Innovative thinking, cultural awareness, social responsibility, the ability to connect with and inspire others—these spell success in today's world.

You want a language program that thinks as big as you do. Welcome to the IALC.

Our program combines intensive language study with electives that put your skills to work right away. Our faculty and staff are accomplished scholars, world travelers and seasoned New Yorkers, dedicated to your progress and eager to share their expertise. Extra-curricular workshops, clubs and guided field trips help you get the most out of studying in one of the most influential and exciting cities in the world.

Ready to go? We're waiting for you.

IALC Spring 2017 | January 17 – May 5

Intensive English Program | 8:30 am – 11:20 am

Monday and Thursday

Intermediate Writing I and II
Advanced Writing
Writing for University Preparation

Tuesday and Friday

Intermediate Speaking I and II
Advanced Speaking
English for Business

Electives | 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Monday and Thursday

English for Legal Studies
Fiction and Creative Writing

Tuesday and Friday

TOEFL Preparation
American Culture in Film

Evening Courses | 6:00 pm – 8:40 pm

Monday and Thursday

Language for Professional Development

Free Workshops

Get out and see what the city has to offer, practice your conversation skills, and polish your grammar in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. Schedule TBA.

Tuition

$1600 per course. Full-time students must register for three or more courses.

Private instruction is also available. Contact us for details.